

Wilderness At The Smokies

Looking for something fun to do this weekend? Something different? Something WILD? Why not head out to the Wilderness - Wilderness at the Smokies, that is. Located just a short drive away in Sevierville, Wilderness at the Smokies is the region's newest and largest waterpark resort, and it offers adventurous travelers the perfect blend of fun and relaxation. Snuggled up next to the foothills of the scenic Smoky Mountains, Wilderness at the Smokies is situated on 700 acres in one of the nation's most popular vacation spots.

What is it you need this weekend? Wilderness at the Smokies' Stone Hill Lodge Hotel is connected to the Sevierville Events Center and offers rooms and suites with a modern mountain décor. Wilderness has something for everyone. Amenities include the Salamander Springs Outdoor Waterpark, Coyote Cove Snack Bar, fitness center, Hidden Trail family restaurant, Black Bear Boutique, and the Back Country Video Arcade, with dozens of the most popular video games around.

Is the weatherman calling for a heat wave this weekend? Salamander Springs Outdoor Waterpark is reserved exclusively for guests at the Wilderness and offers a wide range of attractions for every age group, including a 207-foot long tube slide, a 180-foot long body slide, an activity pool, tot swings for littlest adventurers, and a four-level play structure with slides, buckets and play-and-spray water activities. The smart folks at Wilderness thought of everyone—they even have a large hot tub for mom and dad to relax in, while the kids play.

Do you prefer your water adventure in a controlled climate? Why not check out the Wild WaterDome Indoor Waterpark located at RiverLodge. RiverLodge features 1, 2 or 3 room luxury suites that are available for purchase or overnight rental. This state-of-the-art adventure offers guests a see-thru, energy efficient roof which allows UV rays in for year-round tanning. And don't think they've skimped on the fun. The 60,000 square foot play area has a SurfRider with 50,000 gallons of waterflow per minute to create a great surfing experience, the Stormchaser, a four-person tube slide featuring a 55-foot drop into a swirling funnel of water, a 10,000 square foot wave pool creating waves up to 5 feet tall, a hot spa, two tube slides, a play lagoon with a toddler area, and the Grizzly Grill—because adventure makes you hungry!

While at RiverLodge – be sure to check out Polka Dot Pots, a “paint your own pottery” boutique, the Outpost Specialty Shop, Bob Cat's Den Arcade, The Thirsty Miner Restaurant with a family style buffet or ala cart menu and even “hand-tossed” pizza baked in a brick oven, then top it all off with an ice cream from the Mountain Market Deli!

But wait! Lake Wilderness, a brand new 3 acre outdoor waterpark located at RiverLodge and connected to the Wild WaterDome is now open! Lake Wilderness is a great place to soak up some rays, jump in the 12,000 sq foot wave pool, journey down Cataloochee Creek's almost 1,000 foot adventure river or kick back and relax in a pool-side cabana (rental extra), fully equipped with flat screen TV's, upscale furniture, ceiling fan and misters to keep you cool! You can also enjoy cabana service from our newest snack-bar, Blue Gill's Cove!

If this isn't enough to convince you, there's shuttle service within the property, a golf course, and trolley service to local businesses. Come on! What are you waiting for? Your Wilderness adventure can begin right away! Call 877-325-WILD, or checkout the website at www.wildernessatthesmokies.com.

For more information contact: Kim Bridges, Director of Public Relations & Promotions Office: (865) 868-2170 or kbridges@wildernessatthesmokies.com